FACULTY AND STAFF NEWS

SHPS Deadline – If you had a SHPS healthcare spending account in 2008, your card is no longer functional. You may continue to access funds in your SHPS account until March 15th by sending a paper receipt and reimbursement request to SHPS. Funds not used by that time are forfeited. Persons with a 2009 CONEXIS Flexible Spending Account may have problems accessing the CONEXIS website with any browser other than Internet Explorer. The Human Resources Department is working with CONEXIS for a fix for that problem.

Human Resources Expo – HR is providing a day-long information fair on Tuesday, January 13th, from 10:00 to 3:00 in the Price Center West Ballroom – “Learn about the full spectrum of UCSD's HR programs and initiatives at Human Resources Annual Update …Meet with representatives and hear about hiring, compensation, career development, and more, looking back at 2008 and forward to '09.” Preregistration is required.

DEPARTMENT NEWS

Allan Havis’s four character script The Tutor, produced last June at the Lyceum Space downtown, has been published by Broadway Play Publishing.
Gay and Lesbian Times picked the following UCSD shows for best of 2008’s Student Productions:

- Pericles, Prince of Tyre: “A zany kitchen-sink interpretation of this busy Shakespeare play featured shipwrecks, pirates, music from Appalachian folk to vaguely Renaissance and acting styles from Chaplin to Greek tragedy to Pirates of the Caribbean. Great fun.”

- The Physicists: “Friedrich Dürrenmatt’s satire on the responsibilities of scientific advancement offered fine acting, a whodunit and a thought-provoking subject.”

- Tango: “Freedom, social convention and absolute power are explored in Polish playwright Slawomir Mrozek’s play, which featured not only fine acting but also a sensational set and costumes.”

- Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead: “Fate, free will and the illusion of choice are the topics in this wild Tom Stoppard play, wonderfully interpreted.”

GLT also lauded alum Monique Gaffney (BA ‘93) in the Best Actress category, calling her performance “riveting” in the Diversionary Theatre production of No Exit.

Faculty and Alum Alison D. Smith will be screening her videodance Aqueous and performing a new solo at the Electric Lodge in Venice on Friday and Saturday the 23rd and 24th of January at 8pm. as part of La Mer, an evening of art and dance inspired by water and preservation. Tickets $20, Call: 310.823.0710, The Electric Lodge, 1416 Electric Ave, Venice CA. 90291.

Marianne McDonald’s translation of Euripides’ Trojan Women will be performed by Ion Theatre Company in San Diego, opening on January 23rd.

ADMINISTRIVIA

Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday - Monday, January 19th

UCSD Computer Network Status Link – Check for outages at http://status.ucsd.edu/
ONSTAGE

Next Up – The Misanthrope, by Molière - January 29th - February 7th in the Mandell Weiss Forum Theatre

Explore with us the many variations and values of hypocrisy with the great French master of satire as our guide in this thinking person’s comedy of social behavior set in the fashionable social milieu of seventeenth-century Paris.

Director James Winker is a professor in the Department of Theatre and Dance at UCSD. He has worked at the Old Globe Theatre (where he is an Associate Artist), San Diego Rep, South Coast Repertory in Costa Mesa, the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles, American Conservatory Theatre in San Francisco, Hartford Stage, the Actors Theatre of Louisville, Berkeley Repertory Theatre, and the Guthrie in Minneapolis. He has directed The Two Gentlemen of Verona at the Globe's Carter Theatre for the USD/Globe MFA program. For the UC San Diego Department of Theatre and Dance he has directed As You Like It, A Midsummer Night’s Dream and Richard III.
