DEPARTMENT NEWS

Singing Cabaret! – Linda Vickerman announces that this year’s cabaret is at 11:00am on Thursday, December 11th, in the Wagner Theater (formerly known as 157 Galbraith Hall). Come hear a very eclectic mix of styles and instrumental combos, most fielded by our amazingly talented pool of grad and undergrad musicians. All are welcome.

Faculty member Robert Castro saw it in L.A. Alum Tom Ontiveros also came down from Chico, where he is teaching, to catch the production. Jim is now lighting Caroline, or Change at Baltimore's CenterStage (opens 12/17). In January he returns to LA for Kaija Saariaho's La Passion de Simone, also directed by Peter Sellars.

Judy Dolan has work represented in Curtain Call: Celebrating a Century of Women Designing for Live Performance, a design exhibition at the Donald and Mary Oenslager Gallery at the New York Public Library for the Performing Arts at Lincoln Center. Her costume renderings from Parade, Lovemusik, and Arsenic and Old Lace, as well as costumes from Candide (Pink Sheep) and Dixie Carter’s costume from the Alley Theater production are included. Curtain Call will be open until May, 2009.
ONSTAGE

Next Up – The Misanthrope, by Molière - January 29th - February 7th in the Mandell Weiss Forum Theatre

Explore with us the many variations and values of hypocrisy with the great French master of satire as our guide in this thinking person’s comedy of social behavior. The Misanthrope, directed by James Winker, a professor in the Department of Theatre and Dance, is set in the fashionable social milieu of seventeenth-century Paris. Alceste, the misanthrope of the title, is disgusted by the hypocrisy, injustice, and overall corruption in human society. Alceste's concern with the issue of justice has to do with the fact that he is embroiled in several lawsuits, the outcomes of which are determined not by which party is in the right but by who has the most influence in court. Nonetheless, Alceste is in love with Celimene, a young widow with a reputation for flirtation and for surrounding herself with suitors and who is a prime example of the insincerity that Alceste despises in others. The Misanthrope is concerned with themes of honesty and hypocrisy, justice and injustice; the manipulative social games people play; and, the conflict between the individual and society.
