2009-2010 Lineup

1. Sexual Selection – Darwin and Shakespeare Ponder Love (Nov '09) Love's Labours Lost staged as an original dance theatre production conceived, directed and choreographed by Kim Rubinstein and Yolande Snaith.
2. Camino Real (Nov '09) Patti Award winning director, Adam Arian, directs the great Tennessee Williams' salute to hope as a paralyzed community faces fractured dreams and fear of the future.
3. The Revenger's Tragedy (Feb '10) Christopher Ashley, Director in Residence, Calit2 and Artistic Director, La Jolla Playhouse, fuses Thomas Middleton's 16th century bloodlust melodrama into our reality TV obsessed world.
4. The Seagull (Feb '10) Tom Dugdale directs Chekhov's great romance/anti-romance, a universal world of opposites, a meditation on love, desire, panic, creativity, and the spirit of theater itself.
5. winterWORKS! (March '10) Our world-class faculty choreographers present original and innovative works highlighting the unique talents of our dancers.
6. Seven Against Thebes (May '10) Charlie Oates directs Aeschylus's tale of Oedipus' twin sons pitted against each other over the inheritance of a kingdom giving epic and gory new meaning to "family feud."
7. New Directions (June '10) Our MFA choreographers in Dance Theatre stretch dance theatre boundaries in their exciting, new works along with original works by our most talented undergraduate choreographers.
