FACULTY AND STAFF NEWS

2011 Benefits - Examine your pay advice statement carefully for the appropriate deductions. Are your Open Enrollment choices properly reflected there? If not, check your Open Enrollment confirmation notice to verify your elections. (You should have received an email with a confirmation code.) If your confirmed elections do not match your deductions, contact your benefits representative immediately. It may be possible to make adjustments to your selections if computer problems are the cause and if the matter is handled promptly.

W-2 and Tax Filing Information - The University mails W-2 statements on or before January 31st each year. Electronic versions are typically available in mid-January to those individuals who elected to receive their W-2s in that manner. There is a FAQ section related to W-2 information available online now.

Health Plan ID Cards - If you selected a new medical plan during Open Enrollment, your new health plan should have mailed you an ID card by the end of the year. (Some plans will send new ID cards to everyone.) If you have not received your ID card and need medical or pharmacy services, please contact your plan’s customer service department for assistance. Your doctor or pharmacy may also be able to verify your eligibility online or by calling your plan.

Book and Lyrics by Bertolt Brecht; Music by Kurt Weill.
English adaptation by Marc Blitzstein.
In the Sheila and Hughes Poitker Theatre.
January 28th – February 5th

The underworld rises to the surface as the ruthless gangster Mack the Knife climbs over corrupt politicians, crooked cops, and unfaithful lovers on his way to the top. Does he have what it takes to become "too big to fail"? Director Jeffrey Wienckowski sets this production amidst the turmoil of the Great Depression, turning Brecht's epic classic with rollicking music by Kurt Weill into a parable about the sellout of the American Dream.

The Threepenny Opera is presented through special arrangement with R & H Theatricals.

Upcoming: Svich’s Mar Nuestra (Our Wide, Wide Sea) will have a DC premiere as part of the Intersections Festival in February of 2011. The work is a translation of Cuban playwright Alberto Pedro’s story of three women floating on a raft in the Atlantic Ocean, caught in a world somewhere between Cuba and America. It will be on stage at the Atlas Performing Arts Center, Lab II. She has another work, Magnificent Waste, that will premiere in April at the Flashpoint Theatre.

Tricia Roche McKinney (MFA dramaturgy ’94) writes that she is “Long since out of the theatre game :( and working as a producer on The Rachel Maddow Show on MSNBC.”

Nick Triplett (BA ’02) is acting in Los Angeles. He acted and wrote Jim and Kim, a short film, directed by Victor Teran. You can view a rough cut of the film online at Nick’s website or here. He also starred last year in a sketch at UCLA entitled The Wrestler.
