MEETINGS OF THE WEEK

This week is final examinations week.
See “Department News” for graduate acting final presentations.

NEWS FOR FACULTY AND STAFF

Winter Closure Reminder – Campus will officially close for ten days - from Saturday, December 24th, to Monday, January 2nd, reopening Tuesday, January 3rd. The closures include the libraries and most shuttle services. Campus Loop and housing shuttles will be on hiatus. The Hillcrest/Campus shuttle will continue operations on a reduced schedule. The Coaster East/West service will run with some modifications. Click for detailed information on campus transportation options during the break.

Holiday Breakfast Tickets on Sale Now - Celebrate the holiday season with your family, friends, and colleagues, and enjoy hot pancakes and sausages served to you by Chancellor Marye Anne Fox and other distinguished administrators next Wednesday, December 14th, from 6:30 – 9:00 a.m. in the Price Center West Ballrooms A & B. Click for information on tickets and more!

On-campus Shipping Options - A great way to get those holiday packages mailed without standing in the lines – Campus Mail Services offers personal UPS, FedEx, and USPS service Monday through Friday from 9:00am to 3:00pm for a $2 processing fee. (You get to ship at the “State Rate.”) There are some restrictions, and you must pay by check or in cash. Details here.

Peckish? – Dining options after the end of the quarter, but before campus closes, are minimal on campus. Most dining halls and cafes will be closed immediately after Finals Week. Club Med remains open until December 19th. The restaurants in Price Center will be open on a case-by-case basis, some with restricted serving hours.

NEWS FOR STUDENTS

The Holiday Airport Shuttle provides students free transportation between UCSD Peterson Hall and the San Diego International Airport (Terminals 1, 2, and Commuter) during Thanksgiving, winter, and spring breaks. Advance reservations are required and must be made online. Be sure to make reservations early due to limited shuttle availability. Reservations are being accepted now.

Finals stressing you OUT?!? Take a break from your studying and take a second to de-stress, courtesy of University Centers. Free massages and more. At Price Center, through December 8th. More here.

Dedicated 24 hour on-campus study space – There will be no library services or access to reserves outside of operating hours, but students (with a valid ID) may study around-the-clock in the West Wing of the Geisel Library through December 8th. The Library will close at 7:00pm on Friday, December 9th.
DEPARTMENT NEWS

Graduate Acting Student Final Presentations - This week several of the acting classes will present their work to the Department as the culmination of their quarters’ endeavors. All are welcome to attend to observe our graduate students in action. (Please don’t enter the room while a performance is in progress.)

Intrepid Shakespeare is performing a reading of Professor Marianne McDonald’s translation of Euripides' Medea at the Encinitas Library in the community room, 540 Cornish Drive in Encinitas, at 7:00pm on Monday, December 12th. There will be a complementary wine and cheese reception at 6:00pm, followed by a pre-show talk at 6:30pm by Marianne. All are welcome.

PhD student Laura Brueckner has been appointed Director of New Work at Crowded Fire Theatre, starting in 2012. As Director of New Work, Laura will manage and produce The Matchbox: Commissioning and Development programs, cultivate relationships with new writers locally and nationally, act as lead dramaturg for season productions, manage the Literary Committee, and offer an integral voice in CFT’s season planning process. Laura is a dramaturg specializing in new play development and digital dramaturgy

Blast From the Past – Take a look back at past productions in the Department’s Image Archives. Please note that the quality of some of the photos is marginal (dark or blurry or dark and blurry) – these images are from old photographs and are presented “as is”. The latest additions are from the 1992-93 season.

ONSTAGE

Glass Menagerie - Haunted by the past, the present, and the looming future, the Wingfield family comes to life on the stage once more. Kyle Donnelly directs an MFA workshop production of Tennessee Williams' classic play, The Glass Menagerie in the Mandel Weiss Forum Theatre, Friday, January 20th, at 8:00pm; Saturday, the 21st at 2:00pm and 8:00pm; and, Thursday – Saturday, January 26th – 28th, at 8:00pm.
Coming in February

Spring Awakening, by Frank Wedekind, directed by Anthony Luciano. Synopsis: The knowledgeable heartthrob Melchior tries his best to explain sex to his doleful friend Moritz, but he seems more concerned about failing out of school than girls. However, beautiful Wendla learns more about the birds and the bees from Melchior than she may have bargained for as the play tumults towards its shocking end. Just as electrifying and erotic today as it was at its opening in 1906, Wedekind’s classic example of German expressionism explores the passion and confusion, the potency and destruction of adolescents coming of age in a time when pubescent urges were just not discussed.

Wintertime, by Charles Mee, directed by Naysan Mojgani. Synopsis: Jonathan and Ariel head to his family’s cabin for a romantic weekend. Little does he know that his mother and her lover and his father and his lover are also en route! As if things could get more complicated, Bertha bursts on the scene crying that her lover has fallen through a hole in the ice. Discover the struggle, heartache, and joy of love all in the dead of winter.

June Moon, by George S. Kaufman & Ring Lardner, directed by Guest Director MFA ‘01 Alum Jonathan Silverstein (Quinn Martin Endowed Chair Production) Synopsis: On his way to make it big in New York, aspiring lyricist Fred Stevens meets Edna, a gal with a heart of gold. But the promise of success with a Tin Pan Alley down and out songwriter and his glamorous relative deters Fred from the woman who really loves him. A classic comedy.

dance theatre thesisWORKS, featuring work by Kyle Sorensen and Janet Hayatshahi.

ALUM NEWS

MFA ‘90 alum Danny Burstein was interviewed recently for the popular radio program Fresh Air, which was broadcast last week on the National Public Radio network. Berstein is currently appearing as salesman Buddy Plummer opposite Bernadette Peters in Stephen Sondheim’s Follies on Broadway. The interview is published on the NPR website – there are some great audio links as well.
