Our Town
by Thornton Wilder

directed by Kim Walsh

The people of Grovers Corners, a small New Hampshire town, are intimately and profoundly presented in this deeply moving classic of the American theatre. Performed on a mostly bare stage, actors mime most of the actions of the characters' lives, only to highlight just how full their lives actually were. At times deeply emotional and poetic, this play also showcases the talents of a large cast through creative staging, down-home nostalgia and sly humor.

in the Sheila and Hughes Potiker Theatre undergraduate theatre production

Show dates: Nov. 27, 28, 29 & 30, Dec. 1 @ 7:30pm; Dec. 1 @ 2pm

At the heart of A Beautiful Day in November on the Banks of the Greatest of the Great Lakes is the idea that even in the face of conflicting points of view, and the ultimate divider, death, ritual still has the power to gather us together. The urge to be together is more powerful than what divides us.
